13. [REDACTED] Carl Marcy, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to say Senator Symington had been much impressed with the Director's briefing of the Senate Armed Services Committee this morning and urged that the Foreign Relations Committee get the benefit of the same briefing. Marcy said Chairman Fulbright was out of town but wondered if the Director would be available next week. I told him I didn't know about the Director's availability but would let him know tomorrow.

14. [REDACTED] Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, told me today that the confirmation hearing for Mr. Schlesinger was presently scheduled for Wednesday, 10 January, but if the Committee didn't get around to it then they would probably take it up on 11 January. I called Mr. Schlesinger and so advised him.

15. [REDACTED] In response to our request in December, Mrs. Culver, in the office of Senator Hubert Humphrey, called to say the Senator would be available on 16 January at 2:00 p.m. for debriefing by Agency representatives on his recent trip to the Soviet Union. This date and time were confirmed and she asked if we would give her a list of names of Agency representatives by 15 January.
